

The Berlin Youth Longitudinal Study

Principal investigators: Rainer K. Silbereisen, K. Eyferth

Topics (selection)

Type of school, grade	Gender, Age, Nation	Postmaterialistic values
District/area of school	Height, Weight	Life goals and values
District/area of home	Developmental tasks:	Gender role stereotypes
Housing conditions	domains/means-ends	Physical maturation
Leisure settings	relations	Computer usage
Perception of environment	Leisure motives	Attitudes toward the future
School experiences	Leisure time activities	and politics
Best friends and cliques	Media use	Boredom
Visibility of substances	Everyday hassles
Sociometry	Self-concept /	Substance use
Participation in youth culture	Self attributions	Functions of substance use
Alienation from parents/peers	Control beliefs	Deviance
Family constellation	Self-efficacy	Prosocial behavior
Forerunner families	Friendship concepts	Sports - attitudes and
Family climate	Knowledge about daily news	activities
Perceived parenting styles	Time budget, Clothing style
Acculturation (foreigners)	Sexuality, Temperament
	Strains due to problems

Archived in cooperation with:

Zentralstelle für Psychologische Information und Dokumentation
Available: Spring 2005

German CD
€ 50,00 at
<http://www.gesis.org/ZA>

Children-Adolescents-Adults (East/West)

Principal investigators: Rainer K. Silbereisen (Jena), Laszlo A. Vaskovics (Bamberg), Jürgen Zinnecker (Siegen)

Topics (selection)

Type of school, grade	Gender, Age	Child's support of parents
Educational aspirations	Height, Weight	Parental support of the child
Housing conditions	Psychosocial rate of development	Social competence
Leisure activities, hobbies	Physical rate of development	Social integration
School attitudes	Timing of developmental transitions	Alcohol consumption
Value orientations	Critical life events	Cigarette consumption
Peers and friends	Identity status	Depression
Relevance of the social environment	Self-efficacy	Psychosomatic well-being
Deviant group atmosphere	Temperament	Substance use
Peer group composition	Family climate	Children's philosophies of control over status acquisition
Deviance and delinquency	Partner relationship (parents)	Perceived job characteristics (parents)
Membership in organizations	Attitude towards upbringing (parents)	Changes in occupational status (parents)
Transfer of cultural capital	Parenting goals	Economic deprivation
Parental monitoring	Optimism for the future	Perceived financial strain
Parent-child conflicts	Perceived social change
Parent-child-relationship
Parenting style

Studies

Adolescents longitudinal	1991, 1993, 1995
Young adults longitudinal	1991, 1993, 1995
Children longitudinal	1993, 1994, 1995, 1997

Cross-sectional 1996 equivalent to 1st wave adolescents and young adults 1991

Archived in cooperation with:

Zentralarchiv für Empirische Sozialforschung
Complete English version available: Spring 2005